

“BODY OF WORK”

an exhibition by
Pamela Reid

Monday 30 July to Sunday 11 August

A passion can be sublimated, postponed, pushed down and neglected. But eventually it demands to be recognised and dealt with. For Middle Park artist, Pamela Reid, hers is such a story. A passion for art and photography from childhood had to take a back seat as she pursued a career, and a family. But when her child went to school, Pamela, in spite of working full time, took up her beloved art classes and with the guidance of teacher Peter Foster, learning, challenging and starting all over again, she is able to mount this, her first solo exhibition.

Pamela's early career was in advertising (both here and in UK), then for over 20 years in the entertainment industry. Her love of both performance and visual arts, along with an ability to visualise and comprehend design and composition, help her in her day job. But it is her passion, art, that is the focus now. The “Body of Work” demonstrates Pamela's ability to respond to light and individual form.

TV presenter, ABC broadcaster and according to Pamela “all round nice guy,” Red Symons is opening her exhibition.

We look forward to welcoming you to the exhibition opening on Monday 30th July, 6-7.30pm.
